

The Mission of the Solana Public Library

The mission of The Solana Public Library is to inspire lifelong learning, advance knowledge, and strengthen our communities.

1. We inspire lifelong learning by creating more able learners and researchers.
2. We advance knowledge by providing free and open access to materials and information that reflect Solana's global perspective.
3. We strengthen our communities by promoting full citizenship and participation in society.

Andrew Baxter Building: A Visitor Guide

Discover the flagship building of The Solana Public Library—one of the country's great libraries.

A magnificent example of the Beaux-Arts style of architecture, this library has symbolized the democratic ideal of free and open access to knowledge since it opened to the public in 1945. Today, the Andrew Baxter Building welcomes millions of visitors a year from across the world who find inspiration in its majestic public spaces, unparalleled research collections, and vibrant programs and exhibitions.
